

GLAM ROCK | Maison de Grisogono unveiled its new high jewelry collection featuring diamonds and exceptional gems at Cannes this spring. Piece-de-resistance: Grisogono's Love On The Rocks one-of-a-kind bracelet, where intense green cabochon-cut emeralds nestle amidst rubies and diamonds. The black rhodium plating adds depth to the voluminous 18k pink gold bracelet that plays up contrasting shades of gems, while the underside features a scrolling lacework pattern encrusted with brilliant-cut rubies. The organic shape of the bracelet draws upon the jagged, rocky shorelines of the Mediterranean. Outrageously glamorous! | w:degrisogono.com
