

BOUTIQUE

1. Larry Jewelry ushers in the Chinese New Year with its Jewels of Spring Collection, inspired by nature. The Blazing Peacock pendant, celebrating the beauty of the majestic bird and its gorgeous plumes, is realised in 18K white gold and white diamonds, sapphires, and tsavorites. www.larryjewelry.com

2. The brand is synonymous with modern luxury, and Schreiner's spectacular jewellery regularly grace the red carpet. These multi-shaped natural fancy intense and deep blue diamond solitaire rings win hands down for their glamour. www.schreiner-jewellery.com

3. Hermes sprinkles diamonds on the rectangular case of its miniature Nantucket Jeté de diamants timepiece. Fitted with an alligator strap, the Rhodium-plated sand-coloured dial is accented with 35 diamonds. www.hermes.com

4. Gems Pavilion, one of Thailand's leading jewellers, is noted for its outstanding quality and brilliance. Blue sapphires capture the beauty of the night sky in these Masterpiece earrings, set in 18K white gold alongside brilliant-cut and pear-shaped diamonds. www.gemspavilion.com

5. Chanel's stylish evening bag packs a punch with its luxe appeal. Made in metallic lizard, metallic lambskin, and iridescent metal navy blue, this bag from the Fall/Winter 2017-2018 collection is a new must-have. www.chanel.com

6. The new Roger Vivier Mary Jane Podium shoe in velvet is girly with a retro spin. Crafted in blue velvet with a metallic-leather ankle strap, the chunky Podium heel with metallic insert is encrusted with crystals. www.rogervivier.com