

BOUTIQUE

1. Singapore brand Caratell is known for highlighting rare, coloured diamonds and precious gems in their creations. These gorgeous, long drop earrings dance in beauty with pear-shaped Mahenge pink spinels and diamonds. www.caratell.com

2. A real showstopper, this stunning Red Dawn necklace featuring rubies and diamonds from the House of Dehres is all you need to stand out in a formal event. www.dehres.com

3. Anabela Chan's playful pair of stud earrings is aptly called Ruby Love & Tears. Crafted in rose gold vermeil, the studs feature heart-shaped ruby and a subtle pear-shaped violet amethyst. www.anabelachan.com

4. A renowned Italian medieval feast, the Palio's true protagonist is the horse, representing the contrade. This diamond pavé ruby brooch in 18K white gold from Bulgari's Festa collection brings to mind Siena's passion for this unique event. www.bulgari.com

5. Add a touch of sparkle to your wrist with Blancpain's Villeret Valentine's Day 2018 timepiece. This romantic moon phase beauty beats with a self-winding 913 L movement, sprinkled with diamonds and rubies in a 29.20mm steel case. www.blancpain.com

6. Add a touch of romance to your wardrobe when you go out for a Valentine's date. This glamorous red bag with gold-hued hardware from the Red Valentino's Spring-Summer 2018 pre-collection is just what you need for a pop of colour. www.valentino.com