

THIS IS ME

The semi-matt lipsticks from Essence come in shades that are long-lasting and pigmented, yet feel feathery and weightless on the lips. Whether you are aiming for a full nude lip, a dark bold pout, or even an artistic ombre, This Is Me has got you covered with eight different shades to choose from. The range also comes with matching gel nail polishes that are very flattering and will suit light, medium, tanned or dark skin tones. These nail polishes are vegan; besides it offers high shine and fast drying! You can either wear the same shade of This Is Me lipstick and nail polish or mix it up a bit.

GUERLAIN'S SUN-KISSED GLOW

This year sees Guerlain coming up two exclusive new sun-soaked intensities to the Terracotta Collection line: terracotta nude and terracotta matte. With its soft coppery tones, the all-new Terracotta Nude leaves the skin glowing with a gentle sheen of warm color. Its light formula melts into the skin to smooth the skin texture and instantly revive the complexion. Formulated with the complexion-boosting Gemnude Light ingredient, all it takes is two simple brush strokes of this powder to guarantee a natural bare-faced beauty that's unique to any complexion. One shade has been created to suit all skin tones.

ELIE SAAB'S NEW PARFUM

With Le Parfum Essentiel, Elie Saab's orange blossom and patchouli signature is reinvented by Maïa Lernout. The perfumer interprets Elie Saab's desire to get back to essentials by composing a resplendent white floral chypre.

Le Parfum Essentiel has fresh, effervescent mandarin sparkles in the top notes, while neroli essence adds its delicate shimmer, as patchouli and cedarwood form the base notes. Adorned with the delicately calligraphed seal of the house etched in gold, the transparent glass of Le Parfum's iconic faceted bottle showcases the tender pink hue of the scent, expressing the sheer femininity of the new creation.

SHADES OF ITALIAN SPRINGTIME

Kiko Milano's new Tuscan Sunshine Collection embraces fragrances and shimmer colors celebrating the arrival of a new season. A palette of fresh tones and deep floral shades allows you to play with color to accentuate your features. Get creative with the versatile six color eyeshadow palette in one of two color combos; mix metallic champagnes with matte brown, orange and rose from the Tuscan Escape palette for an earthy option, or blend bronze and rose metallics with a matte wine hue from the Spring Awake palette for a new take on a smoky eye.

CHOPARD LOVES ROSES

Maison Chopard has launched Love Chopard, a new perfume for women. Crafted by master perfumer Alberto Morillas, around a whirl of the world's most gorgeous roses intertwined with a superb parade of sustainably sourced natural ingredients, the fragrance is composed around six exceptional varieties of roses, among which are some of the most extraordinary roses, such as Bulgarian rose oil, Turkish rose absolute, and Centifolia rose absolute. A flirtatious whirl of the most gorgeous roses in the world, Love Chopard is an infusion of the maison's dazzling red-carpet glamour. Encased in a heavy glass set with gold details, it is sculpted to outline a precious flower of hearts, dressed in fiery red, the universal color of love and passion.
